

Females: Nutrition to Power Through Your Cycle

1

Eat Enough

2

Eat mainly whole foods that are less processed

3

Eat a variety of nutrient-dense foods

4

Limit caffeine (100 mg/day or less for older athletes)

5

Stay hydrated

All The Time

The following strategies are only for those who have mastered the previous slide and have a healthy relationship with food!

- ▶

Follicular Phase (Days 1-14)

(Day 1 = onset of menstruation)

Pay special attention to carbohydrates, especially before exercise

Follicular Phase (Days 1-14)

Eat foods that are high in Iron and Vitamin B12 (especially animal protein)

Follicular Phase (Days 1-14)

Eat foods with
Vitamin B6 &
Magnesium
together

Follicular Phase (Days 1-14)

Eat foods with Calcium & Vitamin D
together

Follicular Phase (Days 1-14)

Try chamomile
tea

Luteal Phase (Days 15-28)

Can increase calories slightly

Can increase healthy fat intake slightly

Can increase protein mid-phase