

Championship Leadership

Senior Leadership Topic Introduction: February 2025

Championship Leadership

The Toaster Activity

Ever wondered if you're ready enough??

Everyone (that wants to participate) will have 5 seconds to name 4 things in a category. Go until you are TOAST

The Toaster Activity

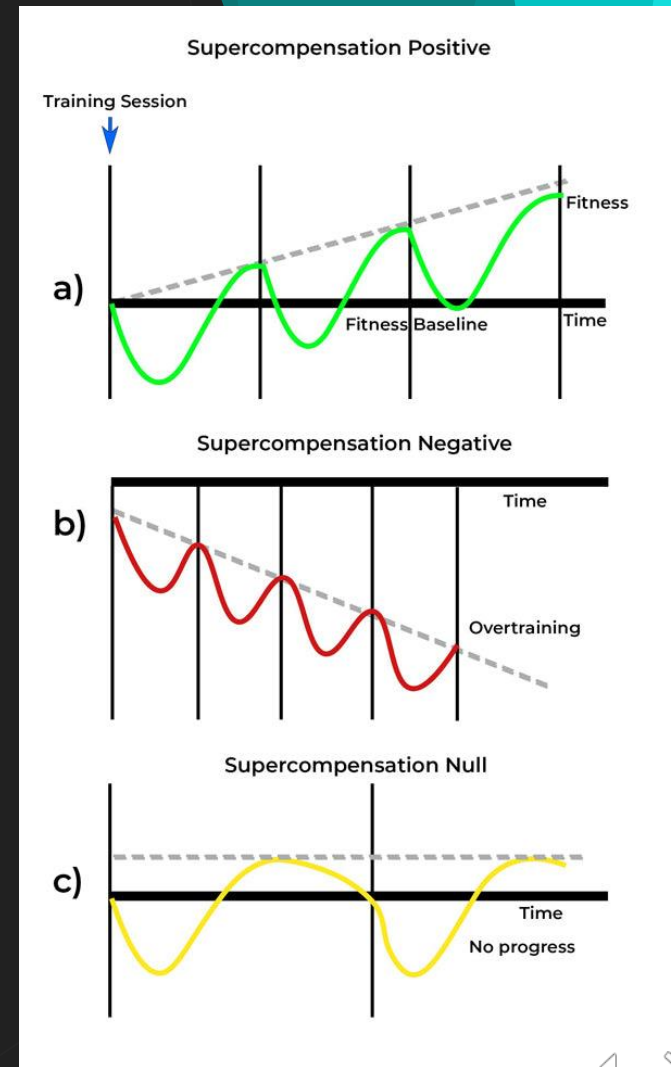

- ▶ If you thought you could do better second attempt...
 - ▶ The only thing that changes is HOW READY YOU ARE!
- ▶ If we want to execute our best, we need to look for every chance to prepare for our meets
 - ▶ Includes performance, habits, and leadership actions

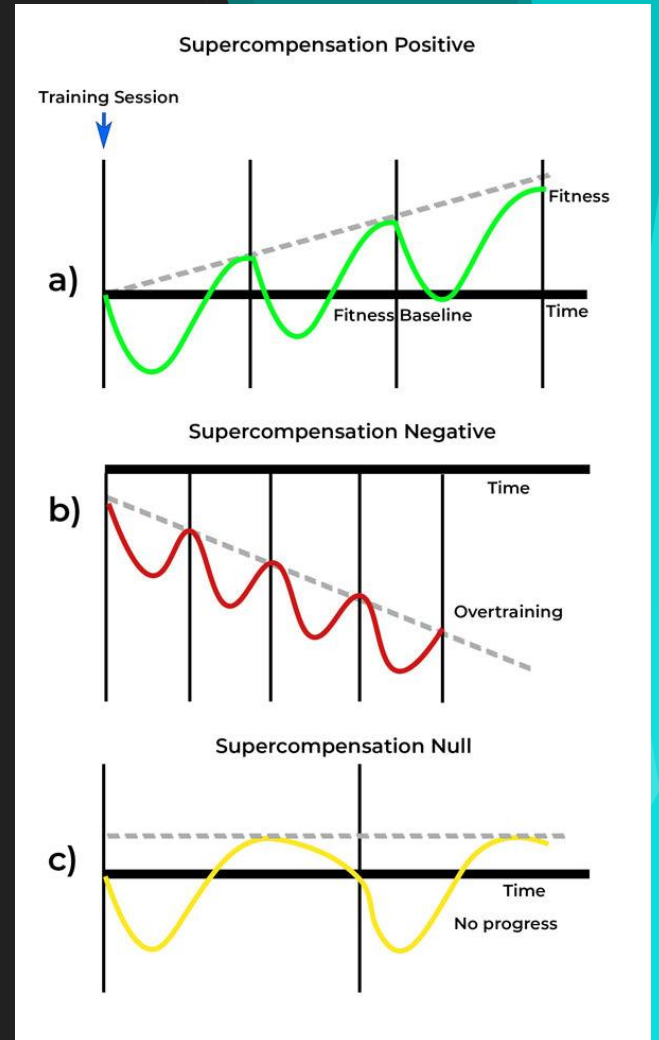

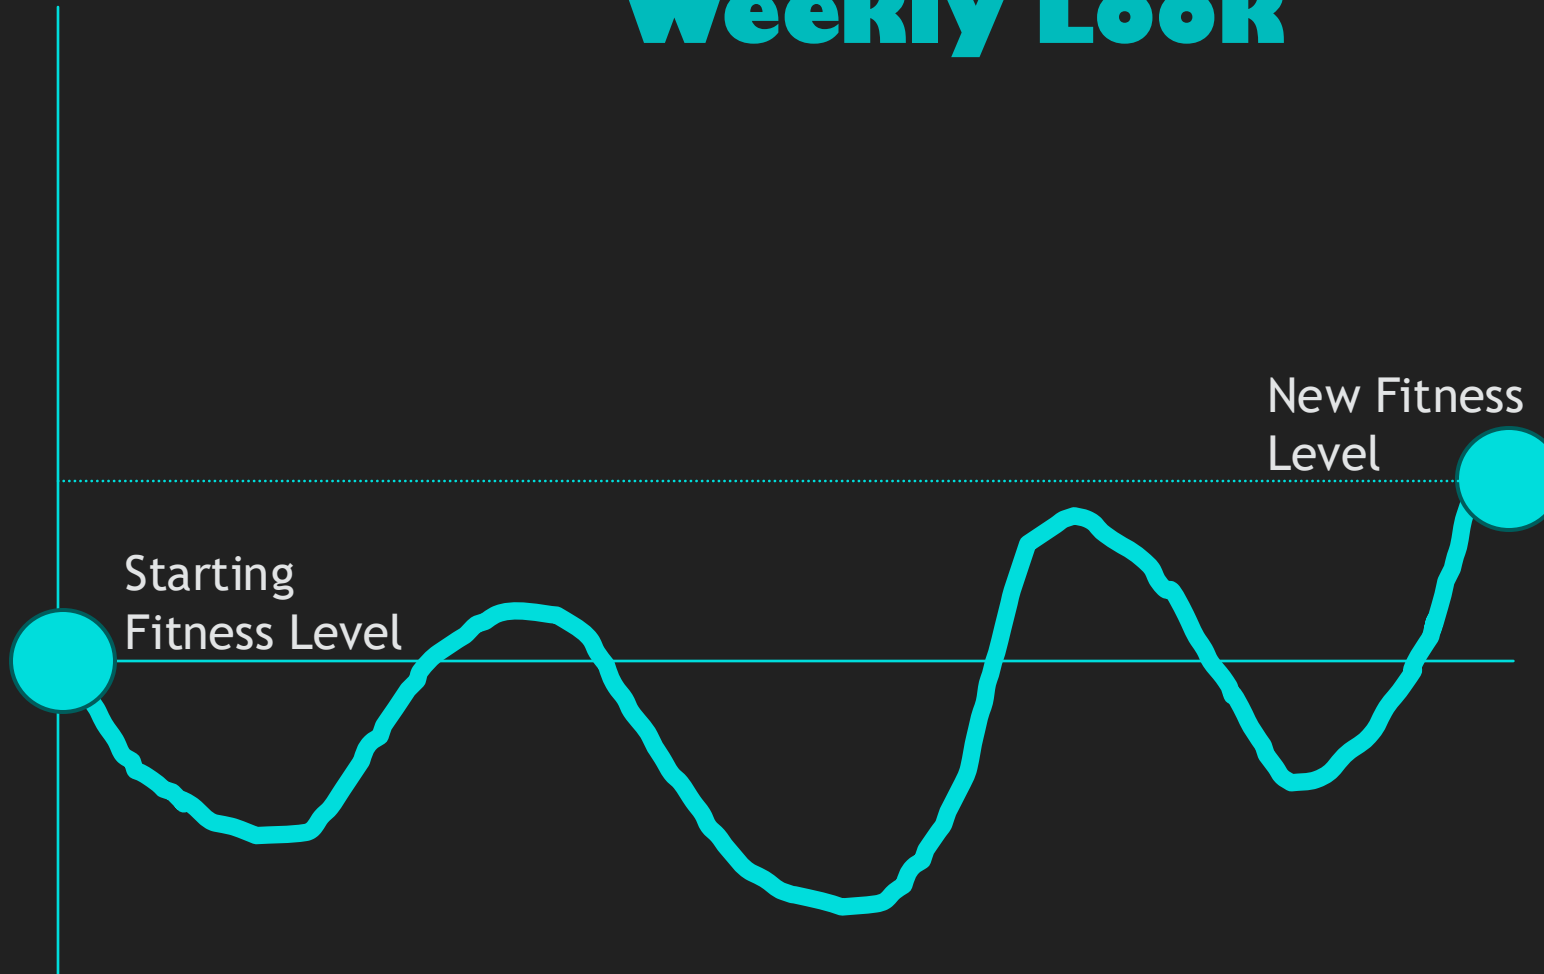

Championship Preparations

Physical Preparations

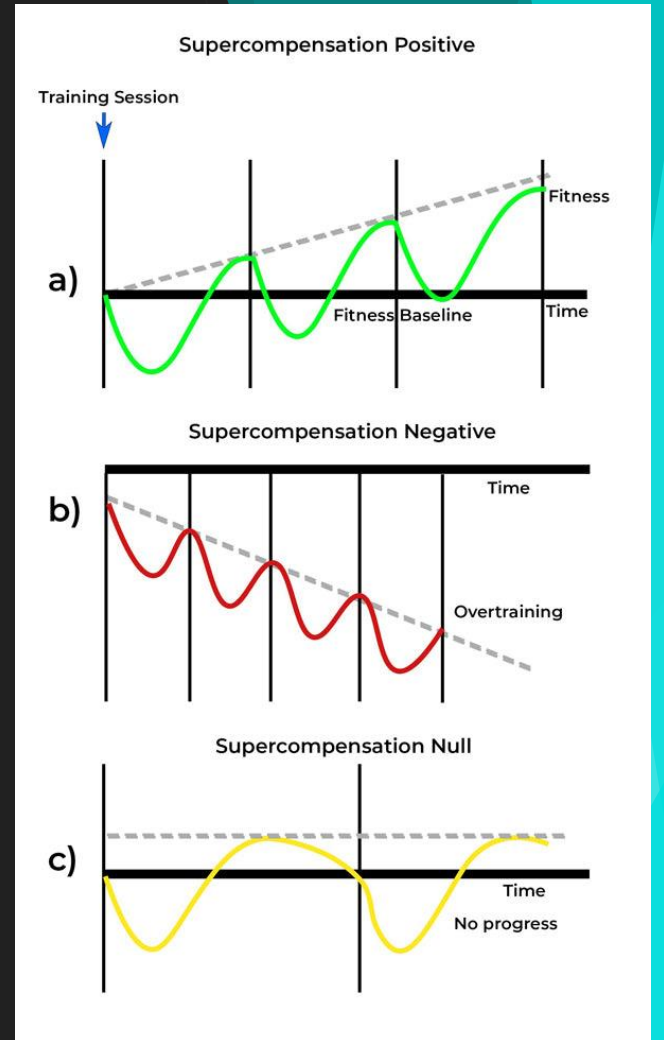

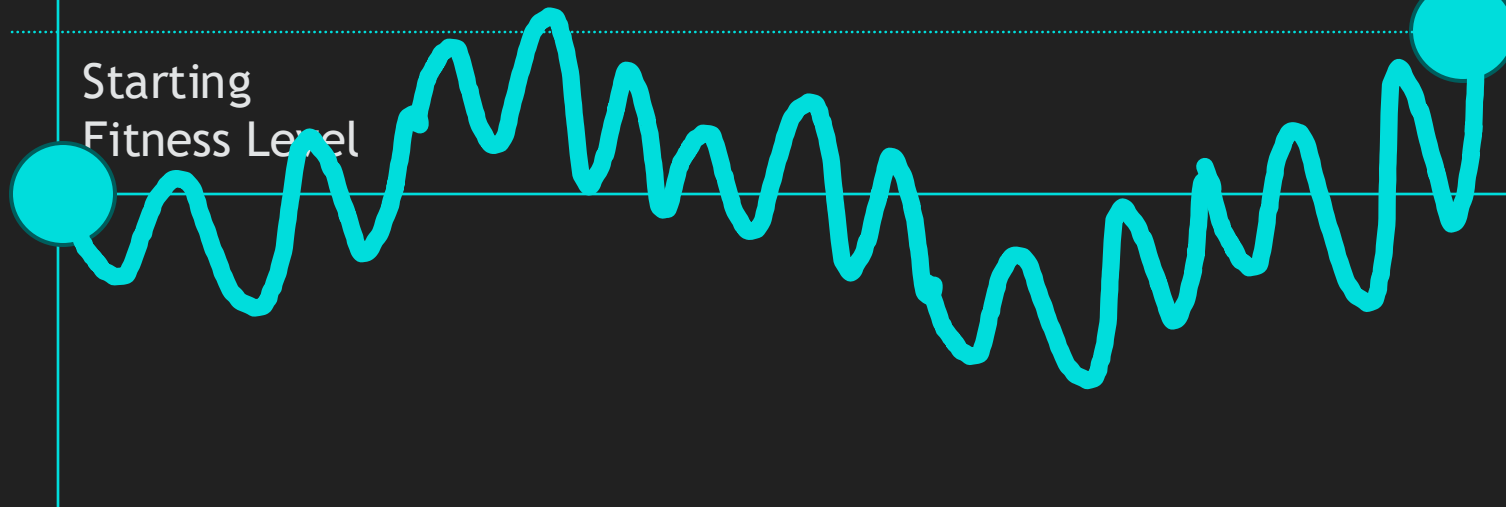

- Taper/Race Prep Dryland (Supercompensation)
- Proper Recovery through sleep
- Proper Refueling through nutrition & hydration
- Managing workload & energy exertion
- Limiting risky/dangerous activities

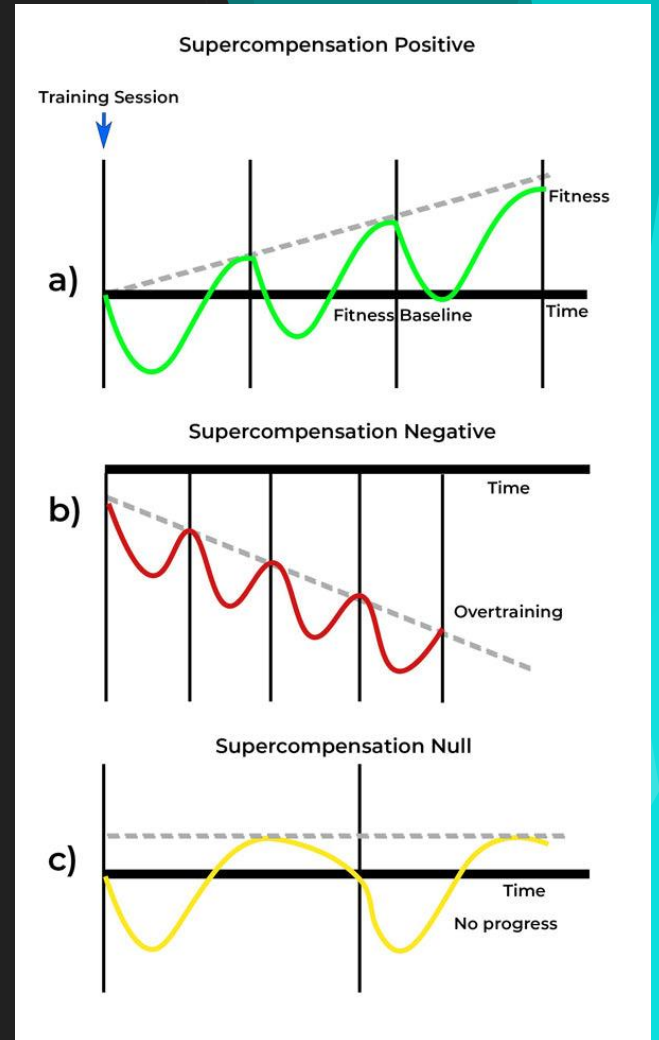

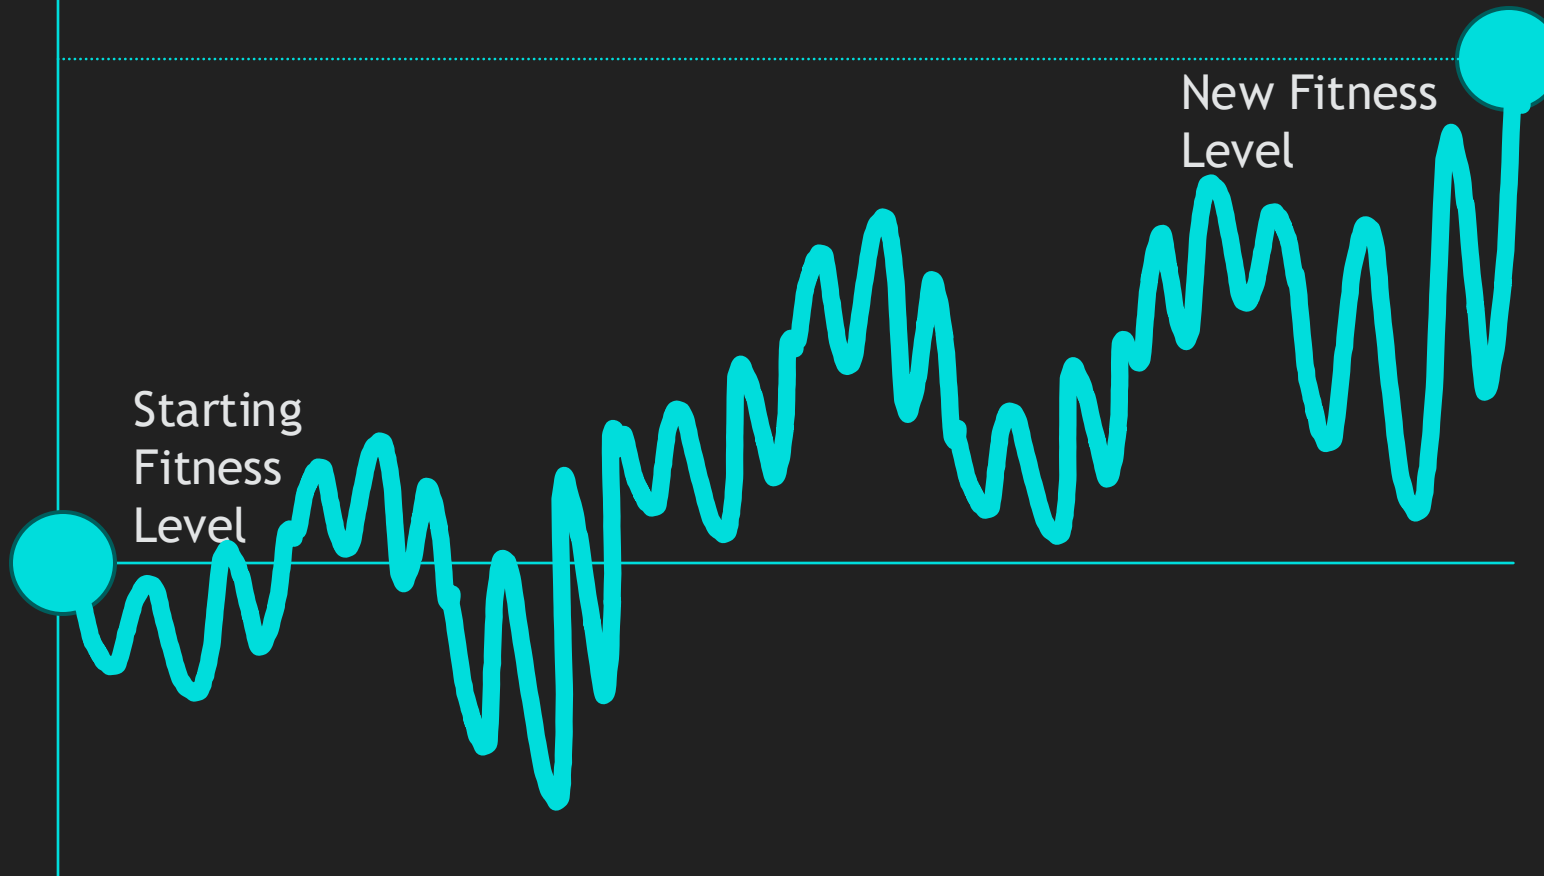

Supercompensation Weekly Look

Supercompensation Monthly Look

Supercompensation Seasonal Look

Championship Preparations

Mental Preparations

- Building Confidence by Trusting Your Training
- Building Confidence with Great Habits
- Taper Practices - getting reps of swims at speed
- Visualization

Visualization Steps

VISUALIZATION QUICK REFERENCE SHEET

1. Warmup Visualization (1)

- Visualization of the warmup routine. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements.

2. Technique Visualization (1)

- Visualization of the technique. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements.

4. Race Visualization (1)

- Visualization of the race. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. The visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements.

EXTRA TIPS: Visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. Visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements. Visualization should be done in a relaxed state, focusing on the physical sensations of the movements.

Meet Day Leadership

What are a leader's responsibilities on meet day?

- Support & Serve teammates
 - Cheer for everyone you can
 - Stay off phone - be present
- GET LOUD!!!!!!!!!!
- Growth Mindset & “Short Term Memory” for own races

Growth Mindset

- Not every race will be a best time
 - Sometimes you could have a bad, and great race within a few mins of each other!
- GROWTH MINDSET
 - Judge yourself based on EFFORT not RESULTS
 - Learn from your mistakes, not get discouraged
- 15 Minute Rule
 - Take 15 mins to feel your emotions - good or bad - and then begin to focus on the next race

Green Team Tasks for February & March

- Team Focus: WIN THE POOL DECK
 - We can't control how fast others swim, but we can control if we are LOUDER than they are!!!
 - Make it your goal as a leader to be the most hype team on deck, and make your presence known!
- Individual Focus: Prepare to Lead with Visualization
 - Practice visualization before bed and imagine your races & leading with confidence at the meet

