

VISUALIZATION QUICK REFERENCE SHEET

1. Relax your body (3-5mins)
 - a. Take 3 deep and slow breaths through your nose
 - b. Starting with your forehead, hyperfocus on that area, releasing all tension
 - c. Move to your face, neck, shoulders, arms, torso, etc. moving down your body to your toes
 - d. Focus on the rise and fall of your body with your breath
2. Picture a warm beach scene (2-3 mins)
 - a. Imagine all the senses you would experience there - the warm sun, sand in your toes, crashing of the waves, etc.
3. Transition to the Competition Pool (2-3mins)
 - a. Imagine walking in for the first time with all the senses involved - smell of the chlorine, echos of the pooldeck, splashing in the pool
 - b. Put yourself in the pool first, then move to your race
4. Visualize your race (2-5mins)
 - a. Start with warm up, and work your way behind the blocks.
 - b. Imagine each lap, underwater, stroke, and kick going how you want it to
 - c. Look up at the board and see your goal times
5. Positive Affirmations (1-2 mins)
 - a. After visualizing your race, tell yourself a few positive affirmations such as "I got this" or "I am an amazing swimmer that has worked very hard for what I want, and it's coming"

EXTRA TIPS: Choose a song without lyrics that you can use every time you visualize. Also, pick a position that is most comfortable for you. You do not have to lie down
