

What is Coach Christen talking about in each video?

Responding to a Bad Race - What if your first race at a meet didn't go well? You can find something to learn from that race to improve on. And also, how many times have you not felt great at the start of practice but are feeling great by the end of it? You wouldn't let the first part of practice influence the rest of it, so why would you let the first race at a meet influence the rest of your events?
